

Constitution Day September 17, 2018

Youth Poster Design Contest

Co-sponsored by the Princeton Youth Program for Civic Engagement and Princeton Public Library

Constitution Day is September 17, 2018 and we are inviting young citizens to take action! Students K-12 (including homeschoolers) are invited to join in and to design a poster featuring aspects of the U.S. Constitution.

The first 25 entrants receive a free pocket Constitution book, with the contest winners receiving additional prizes! Winning designs will be announced online on October 22 online on the library's website at www.princetonlibrary.org/kids and princetonlibrary.org/teens and on www.princetonyouthcivic.org.

Winning posters and other outstanding entries will be displayed on the third floor of the Princeton Public Library throughout the fall. A Poster Gallery reception with refreshments will be held there on October 28, 2018 at 2 pm.

Selection Criteria: Adherence to contest rules, content relevance, original artistic design
